Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

21 August 2022

G'day, feel free to call me Rass. I'm a Divine Word Missionary priest and currently a short-term fill in for your parish priest while he's away in Indonesia for a month. Other SVD priests will be assisting as well. I'm also the Provincial for the Order since January 2022 and my area of ministry includes Myanmar, Thailand, Australia and New Zealand. I'm Fijian-Tongan and grew up with twelve siblings. Yes, my mum is a saint and still the mother superior of the house! I've worked in west Africa, New Zealand, south Pacific and central Australia among the first peoples of the land.

It's tough being a Catholic missionary priest these days. It's like entering a narrow gate in today's Gospel (Luke 13:22-30). Some people think that being a priest is easy. It is not. Have you ever tried leaving your parents behind for a greater cause, knowing that you may not see them again? To be like Jesus and take seriously what he took seriously is hard yakka. It means not being afraid to rock the boat, to be a priest of loving defiance, to be a disturber of peace and witness to the radical message of Jesus. As a missionary priest my main job is to keep alive the dangerous memory of Jesus. The narrow gate is to fight for justice and work towards the cessation of all wars. It is to volunteer our free time and give part of our wealth to the poor. In the meantime we may find ourselves ridiculed, despised and ignored. But hang in there. The Holy Spirit and Mary Our Mother will be with you even when you don't realise it. Give it a try.

From east and west they will come to take their place in the kingdom of God.

Social Justice Statement 2022-23
Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse

The Church in Australia marks Social Justice Sunday on August 28. In their Social Justice Statement, Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse, the Australian bishops speak out about the scourge of domestic and family violence. They call for relationships to be marked by equality and reciprocity rather than domination and violence, respect and freedom rather than coercion and control.
