Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

9 October 2022

Welcome to Holy Family Bishop Brian Mascord

For the occasion of the Installation of Father Henry Adler SVD
 as our Parish Priest.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

The readings for this Sunday are focused on faith, compassion and gratitude. In the first reading Naaman, a foreigner, believes and is healed. In the second reading Paul reminds us that God is always faithful to us. In the gospel Jesus heals ten lepers, and one returns to give him thanks.

The healing of Naaman the Syrian in the first reading was a consequence of God's mercy and the cleansing of the ten lepers in the Gospel reading was a direct result of compassion. God's mercy is the root of our blessing, healing and progress. Like the nine lepers in Luke 17:11-19, we come to Christ many times with desperate longing, once we are blessed however, we go away rejoicing and never return to say 'thanks'.

Gratitude is the attitude of a sensitive soul appreciative of its gifts. It is a sign of a good heart which, while it enjoys the gifts, is never forgetful of the giver of gifts. The nine lepers of our gospel were so engrossed with the blessings they had received and forgot their benefactor. We may try not to be like them. Let us always remember that, "A grateful heart is a humble heart; a humble heart is a religious heart, a religious heart is a reverential heart; a reverential heart is a liturgical heart; a liturgical heart is a praising heart which is in turn always joyful and healthy".
