REFLECTION

In today's first reading, the book of Wisdom reminds us of the mercy of God which extends to all his creatures irrespective of their status. Hence, in spite of the weakness of humankind, God continues to be merciful. This is the nature of God's mercy!

In the second reading, Paul prays for us to persevere in good deed and faith in Christ. He equally encourages us to continue without being carried away by false rumors of the Lord's imminent coming. In other words, in as much as the Lord will come in fulfillment of his promise to us, we must go ahead living our lives. We must not just sit down doing nothing. Rather, we have to get ourselves busy with good deeds.

The story of Zacchaeus in today's Gospel is a true indication that the merciful Christ comes to seek and save us. Irrespective of all human obstacles, the courage and humility of Zacchaeus attracted the attention and mercy of Christ to him. He refused to be limited by the crowd, or allow his short coming be a hindrance to his salvation. He saw mercy and salvation, and immediately took advantage of them.

NOVEMBER MASSES

November is a special month to pray and remember all of our deceased loved ones, parishioners and friends who have gone before us in faith.

Throughout November, a Book of Remembrance will be available. You are invited to record the names of deceased family members and friends for whom you wish to have Masses offered throughout November. You are also welcome to use the special envelopes that are available in the Church foyer to make an offering for November, or beyond. We ask that you please print names clearly.

CATECHISTS NEEDED. "Let the little children come to me". (Matthew 19:14)

If you are interested in being trained as a Catechist now, to be available to start helping in the schools at the beginning of 2023, we would love to hear from you! It will help the parish in planning for our involvement with the schools next year. We could do with some more help.

Please contact the parish secretary (parish office 9059 4134), or leave your name and contact details on the clip-board on the catechist table in the church foyer.

Once you have completed the short training, you would be teamed-up with a trained catechist and start helping in a class. You might remain as a helper, or eventually take your own class

It is a very enjoyable and wonderful opportunity to serve God!

Ministry of Altar Serving - Training

Altar Servers play an important part in the Church Liturgy. An altar server is a lay assistant to a member of the clergy during the liturgy. An altar server attends to supporting tasks at the altar such as fetching and carrying, acting as candle bearers and cross bearers, holding Missal, Thurible (Incensing), ringing the altar bell, among other things.

Altar Servers should be individuals who strive to be dedicated and committed, be baptised Catholics, who have received their first Holy Communion.

Altar Server training for all (old and new, male and female) who wish to join this ministry will commence during Advent.

To join this ministry training program, please speak with Father Henry or contact the Parish office on 9059 4134.

Warning about Email Scams/Phishing pretending to be Clergy

We have been advised that there is an email scam circulating using names of priests of the Diocese. It includes a prayer, designed to make it seem genuine, and a "request that must be managed discreetly". Eventually the scammer asks for money, or gift cards, or similar.

Note that the standard format of an email address for a priest of our Diocese is, firstname.surname@dow.org.au. If you are ever in doubt, please contact the Parish Office before replying to a message.

Be assured that no priest will never personally contact any of you via email or text asking for money, gift cards, or other financial support.
