SUNDAY REFLECTION

In the Gospel for the 2nd Sunday of Lent we hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration. During our Lenten journey, we are called to be transformed and hear God's voice tell us, "This is my beloved Son, listen to him." Like those first disciples, we can become afraid, but we acknowledge how good it is to be here with the Lord.

Jesus' transfiguration is a glimpse of transformation to which we are all called to experience in the resurrection. However, we are called to live day by day remembering that God is faithful to his promise. While we must endure many fears, hardships, and pain on our journey of life, the only thing that will endure is God's love for us.

The season of Lent offers us moments of transfigurations or mountain top experiences, but then urges us to live these experiences on the ground in the midst of those who hunger and thirst to hear that they are God's beloved. Jesus invites us with our many weaknesses to grow in holiness. We may not be able see great visions, but we must still follow God faithfully. Without faith, we are not able to experience the fullness of God's love.

Our personal moments of transfiguration can cause us fear, surprise, and hope. We are called to be attentive to moments where God is revealed in our lives. We are called to open our eyes and hearts to deepen our relationship with Jesus in our lives.
