Kenneally's Funerals

In Mongolia, Chuluunbaatar suffered a life-altering injury while trying to rescue a submerged vehicle, leaving him unable to work and reliant on scarce support services for basic needs. Without shelter and food, Chuluunbaatar faces the real risk of freezing to death.

Resources are limited, but the Church in Mongolia is working hard to provide essential services to people in need.

This World Mission Month, we invite you to extend your generosity to help enhance these vital services. Your support can make a significant difference to the lives of many, offering hope and tangible assistance to individuals like Chuluunbaatar.

Reflection

The readings this weekend focus on the wisdom of God and the challenge of following Jesus. The messages encourage believers to seek God's wisdom and prioritize spiritual wealth over material wealth. The first reading shows how King Solomon prayed for wisdom and valued it above all riches. This teaches us to seek God's wisdom, which is more precious than any material wealth.

The second reading from Hebrews reminds us that God's word is alive and powerful. It can judge our thoughts and desires, urging us to live according to God's teachings. It is like "a double-aged sword that cuts across the bones." Through this, it simply reminds us that the word of God is the ultimate and irresistible power through which God reaches and enriches us. The word of God conquers and transforms every heart that humbly receives it. It brings our real thoughts and intents to light, and also dispels all forms of darkness.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the rich young man to sell all he has and follow Him. This shows the challenge of letting go of earthly possessions to fully commit to Jesus. Jesus' call to the rich young man is a reminder for all of us to follow Him without reservation. It emphasizes the importance of prioritizing our relationship with Jesus over anything else.

The rich young man asks Jesus how to inherit eternal life. Jesus' response teaches that eternal life is a gift from God that requires faith and dedication to His commandments. Jesus tells His disciples that it is hard for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God, but nothing is impossible with God. This reassures us that God can help us overcome any obstacles in our spiritual journey.

The readings for this Sunday encourage us too to seek God's wisdom and prioritize our spiritual journey. By following Jesus and trusting in God's power, we can overcome the challenges of earthly attachments and strive for eternal life.

INVITATION FROM THE NEOCATECHUMENAL WAY COMMUNITY

'Who do you say I am', asks Jesus Christ of his first followers.
Also today, this could be a confronting question for many.

If you are wanting to better understand where God is acting in your life, then the Neocatechumenal Community of Holy Family Parish invites you to come and listen. First approved by St Pope Paul VI in response to the challenge of the Second Vatican Council, these catechesis will help you to discover your baptism in adult faith. Commencing Wednesday 24th of August at 7pm in the rooms below the Church, the nights will continue until October 16th, every Wednesday and Saturday night. If you require assistance to travel or with babysitting, please call or text Bernie 0432 413 803 or Laura 0433 343 717.
