The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

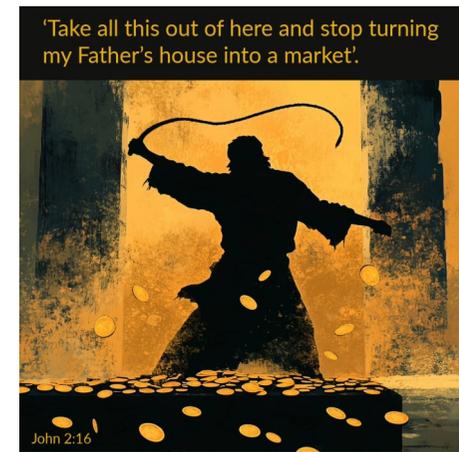

9 November 2025

Reflection

This weekend, instead of the usual Sunday liturgy, we are celebrating the feast of the dedication of a Church – the Lateran Basilica in Rome, which is the cathedral of the Pope as the Bishop of Rome. Contrary to common belief, this basilica, not St. Peter's, is the mother church of the Roman Catholic Church and holds the title "Mother and Head of all the churches in the city and the world."

The celebration of this feast highlights the unity of the Church, with the Lateran Basilica serving as a visible symbol of the universal Church's foundation in Christ and its communion with the Pope. The Gospel reading recounts the moment when Jesus cleanses the temple in Jerusalem. This passage resonates deeply with the meaning of the feast, as it reflects Jesus' zeal for the sanctity of the temple, a place meant for worship and prayer, not for profit and corruption.

Then Jesus points to a deeper reality when He says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." While His listeners thought He was speaking about the physical temple, Jesus was referring to the temple of His body. This signifies a profound shift: the true temple of God is no longer limited to a physical structure but is now found in Jesus Christ Himself. His death and resurrection transformed the way we understand God's presence, reminding us that He dwells not only in sacred buildings like the Lateran Basilica but in each of us as members of the Body of Christ. Through this feast, we are reminded of our collective mission to build up the Church, both as a physical structure of unity and as a spiritual community rooted in Christ.
