Reflection by Father Henry

The readings this Sunday present us with a beautiful image of God's Kingdom as a great banquet. In the first reading, Isaiah prophesies a feast prepared by God for all peoples - a celebration of abundance, joy and communion. It is a feast where death is destroyed, tears are wiped away, and God's people experience the fullness of life. God's desire is that all people share in this joy.

In the Gospel, Jesus uses the image of a wedding feast to speak about the Kingdom of God. The invitation is generous and extended to everyone. Yet, surprisingly, many of those first invited refuse to come. They are too occupied with their farms, businesses and everyday concerns. Others reject the invitation altogether. Eventually, the invitation is extended to people from the crossroads - to everyone, both good and bad.

This challenges us to ask: What might be preventing us from accepting God's invitation? Like the guests in the parable, we can become so absorbed in our work, responsibilities, possessions and daily routines that we fail to notice God's call. Sometimes we are not openly rejecting God; we simply become too busy to respond.

The wedding garment reminds us that accepting God's invitation also calls for a change of heart. We are invited not merely to enter the banquet but to live according to the values of God's Kingdom - with faith, love, mercy and compassion.

The banquet is still being prepared, and the invitation is still being offered. God's grace is offered to all. The question is: will we hear the invitation, respond generously, and allow God to transform our lives?

This year marks 100 years of World Mission Day, a time in which the global Church celebrates God's mission through prayer and generosity.

Today, that mission continues in places like Malawi, where communities are rebuilding after devastating floods and families are striving to create a future for their children.

Holy Family Parish Looking Ahead to 2027

As we look ahead to 2027, we would like to hear from our parishioners about the opportunities you would value in the life of our parish.

Your feedback will help us understand what our parish community would value and, importantly, what parishioners would participate in.

To complete the survey online, please scan the QR code.

For parishioners who do not have internet or computer access, hard copies of the survey are available from the table in the church foyer. Completed surveys can be placed in the survey box on the table in the church foyer.

All responses, online and paper, are anonymous.

Thank you for taking the time to share your thoughts and help us look ahead to 2027 together.

We pray ... For world leaders and all who shape public policy, that they may seek peace, uphold justice and protect the dignity of every human life. For all who have served and sacrificed in war; for those who gave their lives in service of our country, and for all veterans and their families. For those who are burdened in mind, body, or spirit, especially those carrying heavy crosses. For those who feel forgotten, for those who have no one to pray for them, and for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

For the sick and homebound: May the saving power of the risen Lord bring healing, comfort and peace to their bodies and send strength to their carers. Amen. For our sick relatives, friends and parishioners and all who have nobody to pray for them; Maria Elizabeth Tuason, Emerlida Castillo, Rebecca Velasco, Susitina Unasa, Josephine Flores Ferrer, Pamela Smith, Tuainekore Maraera, Joanna Oca, Susan Williams, Doris Goldingay, Shayne Sainsbury, Les Jefferies, Sharon Knight.

For our recently dearly departed: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Maureen Hardy-Smith, Joly Cabuso, Alexander Mackie, Beverley Foley, Esther Thierjung, Richard Chukwulobe, Tumua Oláiga, Joanne Canceri, Gogo Nakamandlovu, Salesi Charles Ramsay, Anne Swindles, Maureen Donnelly, Edna Ocampo, Fely Hewitt, Peter James Mackenzie, Loreto Parco Mesina.

For those whose death anniversaries occur at this time: Having returned to the Father, may they rest in peace. Amen.

For those who have nobody to pray for them; For all of our family members and friends; Clarita Trajano, Margaret Clifford, Maria Paz Maracha, Tanya Carney, Buenaventura Calvelo.

Other intentions: For our RCIA catechumens and candidates, that God will continue to open their hearts, deepen their faith, and guide their steps closer to Christ through this time of preparation.

For all students beginning their HSC examinations, that the Holy Spirit may guide them with wisdom, calm their hearts, strengthen their minds and give them clarity and perseverance. May they place their trust in God, knowing that He walks with them through every challenge and that their worth is found not in their results, but in who they are as beloved children of God.

For Peter Chelliah and family, praying that a change of Public Guardian for Daniel Peter may be granted.

For Veronica Torrington and for the living and deceased members of the McNamara and Touzell families.

With joyful hearts, during September, we welcomed the newly Baptised into our Parish community:

Harvey de Geoffroy, Grace Valencia, Victor Barhoum, Augustine Viane

We ask God to bless these children, their parents, Godparents and families, to surround them with your goodness and lead them in Your light each day of their lives.
